

The Piano Lady

Janice Lee Kirstein
11718 Alderidge Lane
San Diego, CA 92131

Mobile: 858.663.6238 Fax: 858.586.1841
Email: janicek@san.m.com Website: the-piano-lady.com

Objective

With my skills and patience as a teacher, I strive to inspire students by instilling in them the knowledge to play the piano with the best of techniques and expression so that they are able to perform with confidence and finesse.

Education

1983 – 1987: The University of Texas at Austin
Major: Electrical Engineering, Bachelor of Science
Minor: Music, earning a 4.0/4.0 in related courses including music, piano, dance, and language

1989: San Diego State University
Graduate Studies in Electrical Engineering

1988 – 1993: Mesa/Miramar College in San Diego
Continuing courses in Advanced Piano and Dance earning 4.0/4.0 in all courses

1999 – 2001: Accelerated Violin Studies through Level 4 Suzuki Method with private instructor in San Diego

Professional Experience

1986 – Present: Private Piano Instructor with over 40 students per week, organizing and performing at 2 to 4 recitals a year

2009 – 2012: Musical Composition Judge for the "Reflections" Creative talents competition at Del Mar Union Public Schools in San Diego

1999 – 2014: Art Corps Teacher, attending workshops and teaching any of 8 different Art lessons varying for each of the grades Kindergarten through 6th

2002 – 2004: Piano Accompanist for the Choir and Honor Choir, Keyboardist for the Musical Productions, and Piano Accompanist for Recorder Festivals for Robert Dingeman Elementary School

1987 – 1994: Electrical Engineer at Hughes Aircraft Corporation in San Diego

1984 - 1986: Teacher's Aide for a Self-Paced Electrical Engineering Course at The University of Texas at Austin, having passed the course in one-third the allotted time to earn the position

1982 – 1983: Teacher and After School Provider at Anderson Mill Day Care Center in Austin, TX for toddler through elementary school-aged children